STAT

In our conversation at the Knickerbocker Club on Sunday evening, March 18th, you mentioned to me that you had written to the Personnel Division of this Agency and had not received a reply. When I got out of the hospital and returned to the Agency on March 26th, I investigated this matter and discovered that you had written to

STAT

 Assistant Chief of Personnel Procurement in the Personnel Division, on 1 March 1951 and that he had replied to you on 20 March 1951 or a couple of days after I saw you. This delay in reply of a little over two weeks while not commendable is perhaps understandable in view of the great pressure now put upon our Personnel Division.

STAT

Very sincerely,

WILLIAM H. JACKSON
Deputy Director of
